
McFARLANE LATTER

ARCHITECTS

A great year for awards...

In October McFarlane Latter Architects attended the British Council for Offices Awards 2006.

We were delighted to be nominated in the Fit-Out Workplace category for our work at Universal Music Group's new Headquarters in Kensington High Street.

FINALIST 2006

McFarlane Latter Architects were short listed during November in the Total Workspace Concept category for the Universal Music Group, London Consolidation Project.
